Structure/Pattern of the Syllabus of M.A. (German) Semester System (For Colleges and External Students)

To be implemented with effect from
M.A. Part I (Semester1 & 2) – Academic Year 2013-14

Preamble of the Syllabus

German is one of the major Foreign Languages in India. The Teaching of German was started for the first time in India in 1914 in Pune. Pune University is one of the few centres in the world, where the number of students studying M.A. with German as a special subject has been increasing every year.

In the Theory of Literature, in Culture Studies, in Foreign Language Teaching there are new developments in the recent past. The courses in Pune University have to take cognizance of these developments. It is extremely important to update the syllabus of M.A. and to make it more relevant to the globalized world. It is necessary to introduce new literary works and course contents in the syllabus.
