One day Workshop on "e-Governance"

Venue : Sant Namdeo Sabhagriha, University of Pune
Date: 16th July, 2013
Time : 9.30 a.m. to 5.30 p.m.

Background:

Government of Maharashtra has always been in forefront in implementation of Information and Communication Technology to bring government services at doorstep of citizens. In order to increase awareness and encourage involvement of academia in e-Governance, Government of Maharashtra is planning to conduct University Workshops on e-Governance at Mumbai, Pune, Aurangabad and Nagpur.

The purpose of university level workshop is to generate awareness about e-Governance in general and encourage academic/students to do more research in this domain which will be relevant in the Indian context and which will provide insights to project implementation and sustainability.

Objective of the Workshop:

- To generate awareness about the e-Governance initiatives in state and key landmark projects like UID, NMEICT etc.
- To encourage academicians for doing more research work in this domain which is relevant to Indian context and which can provide insights into improving project implementation and sustainability
- Discuss challenges in speeding up the delivery of e-Services and state specific issues
- Understanding Emerging technologies and solutions from Industry
- To discuss the role of e-Governance in Academia
