

1. M.A. in Sanskrit Linguistics

Semester - I

- Paper I - Introduction to Modern Linguistics.
Paper II - Introduction to Chomskyan Linguistics.
Paper III - Introduction to Ancient Indian Grammatical Theories.
Paper IV - Post-Paninian and Non-Paninian Grammatical Traditions.

Semester - II

- Paper V - Phonetics in Ancient Indian.
Paper VI - Phonology in Ancient India.
Paper VII - Introduction to Indian Philosophy of Language.
Paper VIII - Introduction of Bhartrhari's Philosophy of Language.

Semester III

- Paper IX - Principles of Historical Phonology.
Paper X - Historical Phonology of Indo-Aryan Language.
Paper XI - Principles of Historical Morphology.
Paper XII - Historical Morphology of Indo Aryan.

Semester IV

- Paper XIII - Indian Theory of Syntax
Paper XIV - Indian Semantics

Paper XV - Lexical Semantics

Paper XVI - Computational Linguistics

2. M. A. in Indian Logic and Epistemology

Semester -I

Paper I - Introduction to Western Logic.

Paper II - Introduction to Western Epistemology.

Paper III - Indian Theories of Perception.

Paper IV - Western Theories of Perception.

Semester II

Paper V - Indian Theories of Inference.

Paper VI - Western Theories of Inference.

Paper VII - Indian Philosophy of Language.

Paper VIII -Western Philosophy of Language.

Semester -III

Paper IX - Compendium of Indian Logic & Epistemology.

Paper X - Compendium of Western Logic and Epistemology.

Paper XI - Readings in Schools of Indian Logic & Epistemology.

Paper XII - Reading in Schools of Western Logic and Epistemology.

Semester -IV

Paper XIII - Study of Indian Argumentation.

Paper XIV - Study of Western Argumentation.

Paper XV - Project Work.

Paper XVI - Project Work.

3. P.G. Diploma in Sanskrit Linguistics*Semester I

Paper I - Introduction to Modern Linguistics

Paper II - Introduction to Chomskyan Linguistics

Paper III - Introduction to Ancient Indian Grammatical Traditions.

Paper IV - Post-Paninian and Non-Paninian Grammatical Traditions.

Semester -II

Paper V - Phonetics in Ancient India

Paper VI - Phonology in Ancient India

Paper VII - Introduction to Indian Philosophy of Language

Paper VIII - Introduction of Bhartrhari's Philosophy of Language

4. P.G. Diploma in Indian Logic and Epistemology

Semester -I

- Paper I - Introduction to Western Logic
Paper II - Introduction to Western Epistemology
Paper III - Indian Theories of Perception
Paper IV - Western Theories of Perception

Semester -II

- Paper V - Indian Theories of Inference
Paper VI - Western Theories of Inference
Paper VII - Indian Philosophy of Language
Paper VIII - Western Philosophy of Language

5. Certificate Course in Manuscriptology

- Paper I - Broad Outline of Social, Cultural and Political History of India upto 1800 A.D.

(Only broad acquaintance with social, cultural and political history of ancient and medieval India is expected.)

- Paper II - Manuscripts -Their Forms and Content
Paper III - Paleography and Calligraphy
Paper IV - (A) Textual Criticism
 (B) Practical

6. Diploma Course in Manuscriptology

Paper I - MSS Catalogues - History and Description.

Paper II - Advanced Palaeography and Calligraphy.

Paper III - Problems of Editing.

Paper IV - Dissertation.

-----