

1. Lecture Discussion on “Reshaping of the Chinese Military and its Impact on Southeast and South Asia” by Dr. Stephen MacKinnon on 4 March 2014.

Dr. Stephen MacKinnon who has been a visiting professor at Sichuan University spoke on the impact of the growing Chinese military prowess and its impact on South and South East Asia. He focused on the South China Sea dispute and explored Indian concerns about the developments in that region. He also talked on the changes that are currently taking place in the Indian Ocean region.

