Subject: Intel Teach Elements- Project Based Approaches (PBA) Course
Orientation Workshop on 21st September 2010.

Dear Sir/Madam,

The association between Pune University and Intel Teach Pre-Service Program has been long and fruitful since MOU was signed in 2002. Taking this forward Intel has launched the Intel® Teach Elements which are interesting, visually compelling short courses. PBA is first of these courses which provides deeper exploration of Project Based Learning and can be done by teacher educators and student teachers in the self learning mode with the help of CD's or website. This course will create a strong base on Project Based Approaches so as to facilitate quality implementation of the Intel Teach Version 10.1 Curriculum as part of the B.Ed practicum. The instructional design of the course includes animated e-learning tutorials, Interactive learning exercises and Offline activities to apply concepts.

The Orientation session has been planned for lecturers so to enable them to do the course and further guide the pupil teachers to do the PBA course in the self learning mode with the help of the set of CD's which will be handed over to the colleges on completion of the orientation session.
